Re: United States v. Lazaro Rosbal Fleitas, et. al, 19-cr-00631 (WHP)

Dear Judge Pauley,

I am CJA counsel to Lazaro Rosabal Fleitas in the above-captioned matter. My client pleaded guilty before Your Honor on January 24, 2020, and his sentencing is scheduled for May 8, 2020. A draft of his presentence report has already been prepared.

I write now to respectfully request a postponement of my client's sentencing. The current COVID-19 pandemic obviously complicates our scheduling and makes it very difficult to know when it will be safe to appear before the Court for sentencing. Also, my client will be required to travel to New York from his home in Miami for sentencing, and it is unclear when that will be possible. So, the defense submits that it would be prudent to simply postpone the sentencing a bit longer until a date that is both convenient for the Court and more likely to be safe for everyone involved.

I have conferred with my counterpart at the government and she has no objection to the instant application.

Application granted. Sentencing adjourned to August 5, 2020 at 12:00 p.m.

SO ORDERED:

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'William H. Pauley III'.

WILLIAM H. PAULEY III
